TEMPLE
EMANUEL
A Lifelong Jewish Journey ANDOVER

BULLETIN

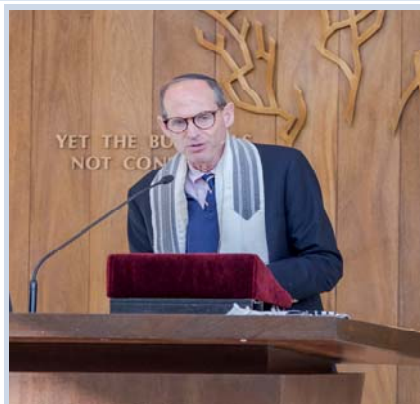

September/October 2019 | Elul/Tishri/Heshvan 5779/5780. Issue No. 2

In Rabbinical School—five long years of additional training after college—we take a deep dive into the vast treasury of sacred Jewish literature: Talmud, Torah and their attendant commentaries. There are courses in homiletics (the art of preaching), as well as classes in counseling techniques, a field that I continued to pursue after rabbinical school.

We are not taught economics, international relations or affairs of state. For this reason, I believe rabbis must be careful when they choose to hold forth on present-day politics with an authority they have not earned. Aside from not being experts in this field, we risk alienating a segment of the congregation that may not agree with us.

Still, there are times when silence betrays the responsibility we accept when we are ordained: to proclaim the wisdom of our 2,000-year-old sacred tradition. There are occasions when our public officials engage in behavior that is so egregious, so contrary to the basic tenets of our faith, that an unwillingness to speak becomes a mockery of the Jewish prophetic mandate to pursue justice.

There is also the need to respond when our community is the target of hateful speech. We are living through a period in American politics when the dialogue has become harsh and vindictive, often tainted by racist overtones and at times blatantly anti-Semitic invective. These statements cannot go unchallenged.

There is no doubt about the power of words. When we gather for the High Holy Days later this month, we will recite the ashamnu, a litany of our communal sins. Many of the transgressions relate to speech: lying, deliberate deception, cursing others, making fun of or ridiculing our opponents. The sages understood that harsh language can do more damage than spears and guns. A rabbinic adage teaches that “demeaning speech hurts three people: the one who says it, the object of their scorn and the one who listens.”

But for all the harm caused by hurtful words, the words not spoken can be even more dangerous. The Jewish sages taught if we placed all the transgressions of speech on one side of a scale, only one: the sin of silence would equal the weight of all other offenses of speech. As the late Nobel Laureate Elie Wiesel wrote, “To remain silent and indifferent is the greatest sin of all.”

As the New Year approaches, it would be wise for us not to remain silent. We should never hesitate to stand up for what we believe is right. But when we speak, we should be thoughtful and kind in our conversations with those closest to us, clear but respectful when we express our opinions in the public square, and, as this political season heats up, demand truthfulness and civility on the part of those who want to represent us.

The T'filah, the central prayer of our liturgy, ends with words from the Book of Psalms (34:14): “Guard my speech from evil and my lips from deception.” May this New Year be one of compassionate conversation, and a renewed sense of tolerance and respect for those in our community and beyond.

From our home to yours, may the New Year bring you good health, fulfillment, happiness and joy. Shanah tova!

WHAT WILL YOUR LEGACY BE?

As we approach the High Holy Days, we begin the task of personal and spiritual reflection. It's a time to take stock of our life, our legacy and our Jewish faith.

I cannot think of a better affirmation than passing the gift of our faith for generations to come by ensuring that Temple Emanuel continues to thrive as the heart of Jewish life in the Merrimack Valley.

That's why Temple Emanuel's 100th Anniversary Campaign for Generations is so important. We're not only celebrating the past 100 years; we're securing our future for the next century.

Together we've already raised $1,154,393 toward our $4,000,000 campaign goal. Inside this Bulletin you can see a list of fellow Temple congregants who are responsible for getting us this far. I couldn't be more grateful for the committee of Temple members who have been working hard to build support for the future of this congregation.

There are many ways to learn about the campaign and our plans to renovate and repair our aging building, strengthen our commitment to our clergy leadership and provide Jewish lifelong learning and engagement for our children, grandchildren and peers. I encourage you to:

1. Visit the campaign website at www.templemanuel.net/100anniversary
2. Stop by the Temple office and pick up a packet of our campaign literature.
3. Ask anyone on our Board, our campaign chair, Susie Novick, or someone on the campaign committee.

Join me in celebrating 100 years with your 100% commitment. Please give generously and make this High Holiday season extra meaningful by doing your part to help keep Temple Emanuel strong and enduring.

MUSIC AT TEMPLE EMANUEL

Shalom Chaverim v'Chaverot,

I feel very fortunate to be part of this community, especially during the time as our beloved temple will celebrate its 100th Anniversary! By our presence, we will physically and emotionally experience this milestone and through our support to the campaign, we will ensure a bright future to our temple and we'll also serve as the cornerstones to the next temple milestone, the 200th year anniversary!

Our talented cast of musicians, singers and Torah readers are working tirelessly to deliver another meaningful High Holidays experience. They make the High Holidays so special, one of a kind, and set a new standard for our music program's quality.

On September 6th we are moving the start time for Friday night services to 6:30pm. On that night, we hold our annual Open

Cantor Idan Irelander

House Service with music provided by the Soul Sisters and the Abbas! My favorite fifteen minutes of the week, "Shabbat with Cantor Idan," returns on September 20th. I am looking forward to singing again with our preschoolers and their families on Friday mornings! Our first Hebrew school

Friday night service is on October 25th as our 2nd grade leads us in prayer and song. In this special service, we officially conclude the High Holidays' season with the celebration of Simchat Torah.

As the New Year begins, I would like to remind you of our adult music programs opportunities. If you would like to join one of our musical groups (the Soul Sisters, the Abbas, Youth Choir, Youth Ensemble or the Adult Choir), please contact me.

JONAH SPEAKER

Wednesday, October 9 during Mincha Service

Each year, a member of the congregation with an interesting story to tell is invited to share his or her understanding of the major themes of the Book of Jonah, which is traditionally read on the afternoon of Yom Kippur.

Dara Epstein Obbard will be this year's Jonah speaker. An attorney, Dara works in the area of affordable housing development and community development law. She was born and raised in the Philadelphia suburbs and was a member of the Main Line Reform congregation. After graduating from Yale she attended New York University School of Law. She and her husband, Philip, moved to Andover in 2014 with their two young children, Romy (now almost 10) and Owen (now almost 8). Inspired to get involved in local politics, Dara enrolled in Emerge Massachusetts, a signature training program for women considering running for public office. In addition to her legal work, Dara is a new member of our Temple Board of Governors, and currently sits on the charitable boards of Andover Community Trust and the Andover Center for History and Culture.

Dara will speak during the Yom Kippur afternoon service which begins at 4:30 pm, which leads directly into the Neilah or concluding Yom Kippur service.

Both services are open to the public.

SELICHOT

Saturday, September 21 at 8:00pm

Please join us for a screening of The Accountant of Auschwitz. The movie is a gripping look at the race against time to prosecute the last living Nazi war criminals before it's too late. Gröning's trial reflects not only one frail bookkeeper's penitence, but the world's responsibility to hold the worst of human horrors forever to public view.

A brief havdalah and Selichot service led by Rabbi Goldstein and Cantor Irelander will follow the film.

Movie and service are open to the public.

Maureen Chapman,
Executive Director

As we enter the fall season and prepare for the High Holidays, I am again reminded of the opportunities for new beginnings. Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur give us a chance to repent and ask for forgiveness for those we have done wrong and offers a fresh start with the hope that we will continue to do better.

This January will mark the start of my third year with Temple Emanuel. I have always felt this is a truly special community. Our congregants come from as far and wide as Western Massachusetts and Southern New Hampshire. We are a diverse congregation with members from all backgrounds and walks of life. We continue to welcome you as you are and fully embrace you as part of our community. I encourage you to say hello to someone new each time you step into our building or come to an event. You may be surprised at the connections and relationships that you will build. Each of our members has so much to offer, and we are grateful to all those who give of themselves to volunteer, serve on the board, and give generously to make sure Temple Emanuel continues to stay as the hub of Jewish life in the Merrimack Valley.

I want to take this time to thank all of our staff for their work and dedication to Temple Emanuel. Without their support, ideas, and commitment, Temple Emanuel would not be such a sacred place. From coordinating the High Holidays, planning out curriculum for the schools, making sure our congregants' needs are met, and ensuring our building is clean and ready for events, we have our incredible staff to thank.

I wish you all L'Shanah Tova! May 5780 be a prosperous, healthy, and happy New Year!

YOUTH EDUCATION

Betsy Kachel,
Director of Education

The best part of the fall is hearing the voices of our students filling the temple school hallways once again. All of the rooms have been cleaned, fresh books and supplies have been ordered, and well rested and inspired educators are ready to teach.

We will welcome our preschoolers back for their official start on Tuesday, September 3rd. Our religious school will hold Sunday classes beginning on September 8th, Monday classes beginning September 9th, Wednesday classes beginning September 11th, and Thursday classes beginning September 12th. Our 9th and 10th graders will have their first class on Sunday September 24th. Please note that due to the time change of the school day for Andover Public Schools, our weekday afternoon program will begin at 3:45pm (with drop off and snack starting at 3:30pm) and end at 5:45pm with our carline dismissal.

The Preschool will welcome four new teachers this year and many new children and families. We look forward to bringing back some of our favorite programs such as Ready Set Go, Music and Tinkering and of course our weekly Community Shabbat each Friday morning with Cantor Irelander.

Our religious school once again promises to be eventful and exciting with increased programming for our youth and hands on and interactive learning in our classrooms. We are so fortunate to welcome back a stellar staff (with a few new faces) this year. Make sure to visit our school wing for a new display with pictures of all of our amazing temple educators.

11th and 12th grade schedule for religious school TBD*

SISTERHOOD

Andi Hirth,
Sisterhood
President

Wherever this summer took you, I hope your days were filled with memories to treasure. As this summer comes to a close, September brings a time for reconnection at temple as many begin a new year of religious school and/or attend High Holy Day services. This year is special as we move closer to saying goodbye to our beloved Rabbi and his wife, Faith.

Our goal as a Sisterhood is to bring women together. Whether you have been a member of Sisterhood for many years or joined this year, are an empty nester, have children in college or have young children at home, there is something for everyone. I look forward to connecting with you at one or more of our many events this year.

Our first event, Paid Up Supper, will be on the evening of October 17th. Mindee Greenberg and Rona Beetham have been working hard to plan an amazing night of mingling, reconnecting, and enjoying a meal together. The only requirement to attend is having paid your yearly Sisterhood dues. I look forward to seeing you there!

Just a few short weeks later, on November 3, we will be hosting our 2nd Annual Artisan Festival for artists and crafters in the social hall of the temple. A portion of the proceeds from this event will benefit UTEC whose mission is to “ignite and nurture the ambition of our most disconnected young people to trade violence and poverty for social and economic success.” We hope you stop by and see the wonderful works that will be on display and support this wonderful cause.

Membership information and information about our future events can be found on the Sisterhood website, in our email newsletter, or please reach out to me or a member of our board for information on ways to become involved. We look forward to welcoming you to Sisterhood- please join or renew your membership soon! Contact me at adhirth@gmail.com.

BROTHERHOOD

Neal Roberts,
Brotherhood
President

As we enter the 100th anniversary of our synagogue we also close out the 10th anniversary of the reincarnation of the Brotherhood.

Celebrating these milestones brings many opportunities for the gentlemen of Temple Emanuel to come together and support the efforts of the Brotherhood and to get more involved- from social gatherings, sports themed events, community events and social action programming. Our Brotherhood reflects the diversity of Temple Emanuel with members of varied backgrounds, ages and interests. Whether you would simply like to get to know other men in the congregation, participate in a variety of events, or would like to become more involved as a volunteer, there is a place for you!

We have many great events planned for the upcoming year. We begin with our first seasonal breakfast on September 22nd at 9:00am. Our theme is "The State of the Temple." Hear from leaders from our congregation regarding where we stand in fundraising, staffing, milestone celebrations and so much more. Ask questions, join the conversation and learn more of how our temple is a strong, vibrant part of Jewish life in the Merrimack Valley.

Brotherhood will be volunteering for two evening shifts at the B'Nai B'rith booth at the Topsfield Fair on Sunday evenings October 6th and 13th. We will also be looking for volunteers to help with the set up and clean up for a special temple breakfast on October 27th called "Do One Thing to Fight World Hunger" to raise awareness of the hunger crisis.

Mark your calendar for our annual "Couples Night Out" dinner and tasting on November 16th. December 8th is our indoor tailgate party at the temple as we watch the Patriots take on the Chiefs. In the spring, plan for a night at Encore Casino, and our annual Night of Food, Fun & Laughs on March 14th. This year will be exceptionally great as we and our celebrity guests "Roast the Rabbi!" Please be on the lookout for more details.

Watch your mail and email for our annual membership brochure. To create a sustainable, vibrant Brotherhood supporting our Temple, we are asking for a minimum dues donation of $36 for the year. We will be holding our first-ever paid-up event, which is now in the planning stages, for paid members at different levels. Your donation goes a long way to establishing the Brotherhood for years to come. Please consider joining or renewing your membership today. Sign up online at the temple's website and navigate to the Brotherhood page. It is that easy! Our membership subcommittee chaired by Mike Emmi, along with Nick Hirth and David Trachtenberg, is hard at work helping to grow our family. Reach out to any of them with any questions.

Join us. Volunteer with us. Get more involved. Brotherhood is a community and we are always open to welcoming you as part of the ever-growing Brotherhood of Temple Emanuel. Let's help make the 100th anniversary of our congregation the greatest ever!

If you have any questions, reach out to me via email at nealroberts@gmail.com or my cell 617-285-6696. I look forward to working along with you all to make this an amazing centennial year at Temple Emanuel.

BOOK CLUB

The Pulitzer Prize-winning Maus tells the story of Vladek Spiegelman, a Jewish survivor of Hitler's Europe, and his son, a cartoonist coming to terms with his father's story.

Maus approaches the unspeakable through the diminutive. Its form, the cartoon (the Nazis are cats, the Jews mice), shocks us out of any lingering sense of familiarity and succeeds in "drawing us closer to the bleak heart of the Holocaust"

Just a Reminder—
When visiting the Cemetery, please remember to lock the gate upon exiting.

“Rent an Arrangement”

Would you like to perform a mitzvah and have the bima look beautiful at your child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah?

By renting the floral arrangements, you can bring the joy that accompanies a child becoming a Bar/Bat Mitzvah into another family's life. All proceeds from rentals help pay for the expense of either a tutor or for a small Kiddush lunch for a family who could not afford to have their child take part in and celebrate this beautiful life cycle event.

The rental donation for the floral arrangements is $180 for two, or $90 for a single arrangement.

To rent an arrangement, please contact the Temple Office at 978.470.1356. You can also email Barbara Holstein at bholstein@templemanuel.net
