

TEMPLE EMANUEL

A Lifelong Jewish Journey ANDOVER

BULLETIN

March/April 2022 | Adar I/Adar II/Nisan 5782

"Rabbi Tarfon would say: the day is short, and the work is much..." (Pirkei Avot 2:16)

These ancient words of one of the sages of our people ring in my ears these days. While a traditional interpretation takes this to mean "our lives are short, and there's so much Torah to learn," I think the words also resonate even at face value. I'm sure many of us sometimes feel like there's so much to do, and so little time!

Luckily for us, our Jewish tradition reminds us to slow down each week, with the gift of Shabbat, and helps us punctuate the rhythm of our year with holidays and celebrations that remind us to give thanks and connect with one another.

So as the daylight increases, and we start to see glimpses of spring on warmer days, we hope that some of the holidays and programs we're planning this spring at Temple Emanuel will once again help us connect and re-connect, and offer a bit of a respite from the busy-ness that consumes so much of our focus.

Over the past several months, we have navigated the ever-changing landscape of COVID-19 and the omicron variant, both in our personal lives, as well as our collective life as a

Temple community. I'm grateful to our staff for their flexibility, and to our leadership, including our COVID-19 Task Force and our Executive Committee for continuing to help guide our congregation. I am glad that we were able to move so many of our worship services and programs to the online-only format over the past months in efforts to minimize the risks to one another and our collective health.

I am also grateful that we have been able to resume our Shabbat evening services and programs like our Taste of Torah class in our hybrid format, gathering both in-person for those who can and preserving the ability to log on remotely via Zoom. Looking forward to this spring, we hope that you will stay informed with our weekly email updates on all that's going on. Our Shabbat service Friday, March 18 will be dedicated to celebrating Purim with a spiel made up of parody songs and a chance to hear the Megillah and shake the grogger. We're also planning an in-person Passover Seder on the second night of Passover, Saturday April 16, and we hope you'll register to join us that night as we celebrate our festival of freedom. These holiday programs are just the tip of the iceberg, and we are working hard to be able to share more details about a wide range of opportunities in the days and weeks to come.

For those who I have yet to meet in person, I encourage you to reach out! And I hope every member of our congregation will take advantage of the opportunities in the days and weeks to come so we can better get to know one another as we move forward together as a Temple Emanuel community.

Rabbi Max Chaiken

A Message From Our President

Just over a year ago we completed our 100th Anniversary Campaign for the Generations. As a community, we came together to raise more than $2.1 million. The funds were divided into three pillars: endowment, clergy excellence, and building/grounds improvements. The funds set aside for building/grounds improvements, along with other building-related funds in our Discretionary accounts, have allowed our House Committee to take a holistic approach to making some much needed improvements.

These improvements began in July with a renovation of the Rabbi's Study. Part of these renovations included adding windows into the doors on the Rabbi's Study, the Cantor's Study, and our Director of Education's office, in accordance with best practices in security. Due to water damage from a burst pipe, the walls in the main office needed to be repaired and painted; that work took place over the winter break. We plan to complete the repairs from the water damage by replacing the carpet in the main office later in the year.

In addition, our House Committee has been working to renovate our Social Hall to make it more inviting for functions of all types. This will include replacement of the carpet, new light fixtures, and new chairs. We hope to have these improvements completed by the end of this fiscal year.

During the warmer months, our new patio provides a beautiful space for outdoor events. We have installed lighting for nighttime events and commissioned a portable ark and reading table for outdoor services. We look forward to welcoming you to many events on the Rabbi Robert and Faith Goldstein Pavilion.

Our House Committee is in the process of developing a multi-year plan to continue the improvement efforts, addressing areas such as the siding on our building and re-invigorating our lobby to provide a more welcoming environment as you step into the temple. The Donor Wall recognizing those who contributed $1,800 or more to our 100th Anniversary Campaign will be installed in the lobby in the coming months. A special event to dedicate the wall and recognize the generosity of our community will take place in the spring.

Social Justice & Social Action

Our Congregation's commitment to Bread & Roses made a tremendous impact again in 2021! Did you know that, along with other donors, Bread & Roses made 800 emergency food packages, provided 500 families with 3 meals/day, prepared 8,000 grab & go meals, served 100,000 people, collected 300 tons of rescued food and served over 600,000 lbs. of meals and held free vaccination clinics.

To elevate our interactions within the Temple and promote social justice within the community at large, we are excited to announce that the ADL conducted an Anti-Bias Training for the Board of Governors and senior staff this month.

Are you looking for a different type of volunteer activity? We have the opportunity to join Congregation Beth Israel of Andover and Temple Shir Tikvah of Winchester for 3 Habitat for Humanity building days in the spring. Dates to be announced 2-3 weeks prior to each building date. No experience needed! To put your name on the call list, email: amy@amysebell.com or holliroberts3@gmail.com. Reminders will be sent as the dates approach.

Tu B'Shevat (the 15th day of the Hebrew month of Shevat) is also known as the "New Year for the Trees." According to our tradition, Tu B'Shevat is one of four New Years in the Jewish calendar! In Israel, it is customary to have field trips on Tu B'Shevat to plant trees; this tradition is one of the best memories I have from my childhood. It is interesting that this year, the Jewish New Year of Tu B'Shevat, which occurred on January 17th, is in proximity to the Secular New Year. This may be a call for an ecological awareness year, a year that reminds us to be thankful for the gifts of trees and nature.

5782 is also a Jewish leap year and so an extra month is added, after the month of Shevat. During a leap year, we count two months of Adar, Adar Alef (Adar I) and Adar Bet (Adar II). Purim, which is celebrated during the month of Adar, is always celebrated in Adar Bet during a leap year. Our annual Purim celebration will be on Friday night, March 18.

I am so excited to continue my collaboration with the PJ Library and am honored to have led a rekindle Shabbat program on January 14th. Celebrating Shabbat with young children and their families is one of the highlights and blessings of my career as a clergy.

B'nai Mitzvah Shabbat experience for the 6th grade was on Saturday morning, January 29th. This was a wonderful experience for our upcoming B'nai Mitzvah students to get familiar with the Shabbat morning liturgy. It was also an opportunity for the parents to learn about the service and celebration and to address any questions, concerns, and suggestions they may have. The 5th grade led us in prayer on Friday night, February 11th and the 3rd grade Consecration will be on March 25th.

I wish you a Healthy New Secular Year and a Happy New Year for the Trees!

Education

We are eager for spring to arrive as we have so many events to look forward to. On Sunday March 20th we will hold a school wide Purim celebration during regular school hours. We will be emailing details including how parents and congregants can volunteer to help! There will be music, costumes, games, prizes, hamantaschen and more!

On March 16th our preschoolers will have their own Purim celebration as well. On March 25th we will honor Kitah Gimel (our 3rd graders) at our special consecration service. In April our preschoolers are looking forward to science and magic with Steve Lechner as well as a special visit by Curious Creatures. In both of our schools we will of course be learning about Passover through stories, games and activities as well. Save the date for a spring Havdalah event on May 7th for our entire religious school!

We can't wait to see everyone!

Mitzvah Makers put together 65 Blessing Bags

This year we introduced a new program as part of our Religious School, our Monday Night Mitzvah Makers! Our 6th through 12th graders are invited to join us roughly once a month to create and deliver mitzvot to our community.

Cooper and Addison Goldberg offered this short reflection on putting together the Blessing Bags:

"For this mitzvah project, we made bags that will be distributed to people in need around the area who need our support during these tough times. We made 65 blessing bags to give to these people including toiletries, non-perishable food, and other simple necessities. It felt nice to be able to help other people and we learned to value what we have and that other people don't always have access to these mandatory items. It gave us satisfaction to help other people. It is a blessing to do a mitzvah for other people."

The Preschool at TEMPLE EMANUEL

The Preschool at Temple Emanuel provides a safe, warm and caring environment that welcomes children and families to our community. We encourage children to explore, experiment, and create while promoting self-confidence, self-expression, independence and a lifelong love of learning.

If you are interested in learning more about our Preschool, please call the school office 978-470-1563 or explore our website at templemanuel.net.

Brotherhood

The Brotherhood board has been planning events, but due to the current Covid situation we have had to postpone and rethink some of these activities. With that in mind, we held our last Brotherhood Breakfast virtually on Sunday, February 13th, which just so happened to be Superbowl Sunday. Breakfast was delivered to participants' doors by Brotherhood board members.

We recently held a fantastic event at Axe Play in Hudson, New Hampshire. We had a great turnout, and everyone had a blast throwing axes, eating pizza and socializing.

Upcoming events:

- 3/10 Board Meeting
- 3/24 K1 Racing
- 4/14 Board Meeting
- 4/30 A Night of Food, Fun & Laughs! - Comedy Night

- 5/12 Board Meeting
- 5/19 Night Shift Brewery tour
- 5/22 Corn Hole Tournament
- 5/22 Flag placement for Memorial Day
- 6/9 Board Meeting
- Family Softball game – spring date TBD

Golf outings are not listed as they are scheduled sporadically.

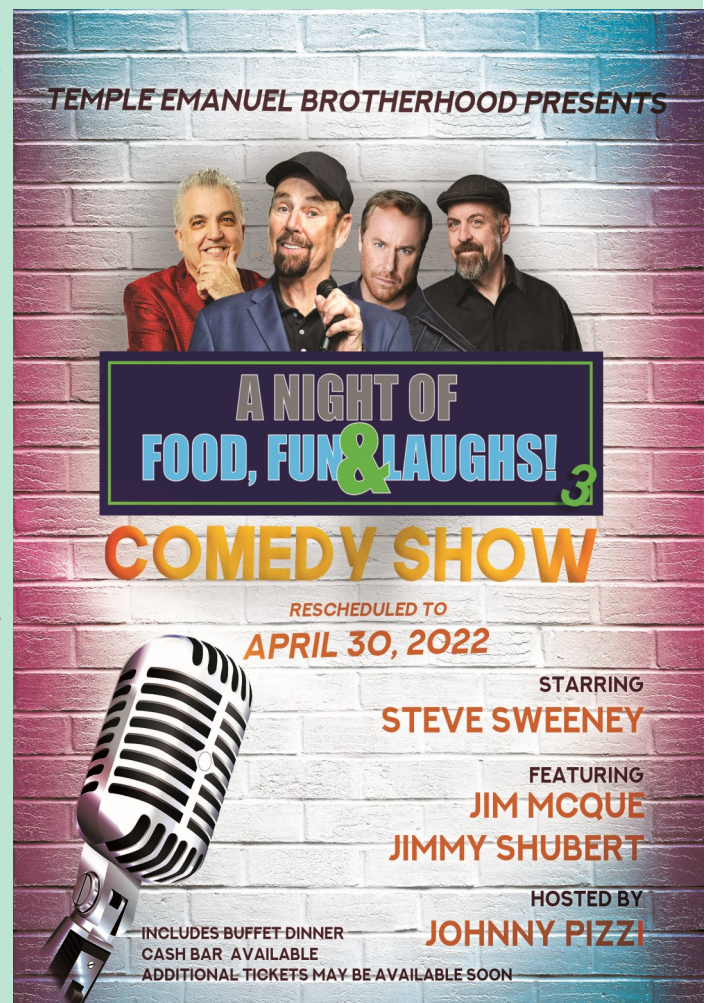

We hope that you will join us for as much of the programming as you can. Get to know other temple gentlemen, build relationships, have fun, and most importantly, support the temple community not only financially but also socially. We are starting to feel more comfortable gathering and celebrating all that is good.

A Night of Food, Fun & Laughs Comedy Night Saturday, April 30, 2022 at 6:00PM.

If you have previously registered back in 2020, we ask that you look for an email requesting confirmation of your attendance this year. We have a fantastic lineup with Jim McQue, Jimmy Schubert along with our headliner Steve Sweeney all hosted by Johnny Pizzi and you won't want to miss it. As per temple policy, those attending must show proof of vaccination prior to the event and masks must be worn unless you are actively eating or drinking.

It is important that you confirm your attendance so that we have an accurate count as to who will be present at the event. If you choose to not attend, you can either swap your tickets with a friend, request a refund or perhaps you would consider your ticket price a tax-deductible donation. If you cannot locate the email, please email Brotherhood@templemanuel.net and we will reach out to you directly.

We know some of you have not yet paid and if you will be attending, we can finalize payment with you after you confirm that you'll be joining us. Currently no additional tickets are available. Should we have extra space and you are looking to add additional seats, please reply to this email to be placed on a waiting list.

Sisterhood

Happy 2022 Everyone! I want to thank Alyson D'Angelo and Tara Grossman for helping plan two Family Programming events last fall. The first one was in November "Magic by George" and the second one was in December handing out Sisterhood goody bags to the families at the Temple Emanuel Drive Thru. Also, I want to thank Allison Glick and Jamie Kitces for our first Women's Programming event this year making candy with Mimi from Sweet Mimi's. Everyone who attended had a great time. Thank you to Dana Katz, Beth Mittelman and Tracey Berman for organizing Share the Light to ensure children from the Merrimack Valley area had presents for the holidays.

In March we will be having our B'nai Mitzvah 101. This spring the Sisterhood is teaming up with Merrimack Valley's Hadassah for mahjong at Temple Emanuel. If you have any questions or would like to join, please contact Susan Abraham suabraham@verizon.net or Phyllis Hirth Phyllishrth@gmail.com.

Sunday, May 15th will be the Sisterhood's annual Ways and Means Dinner. This year's guest speaker will be Brandeis' Professor Lisa Fishbayn Jaffe who will be speaking about Feminism and Judaism through the years. Due to many businesses being affected by COVID, we are not going to ask businesses this year for donations for the Silent Auction. Instead, we are asking for Sisterhood members and Temple members to donate a theme basket for the Silent Auction. Also, we are looking for volunteers to help make this year's Ways and Means successful. If you are interested in helping please contact me at: Trachtenberg.Meryl@Comcast.net

Thank you,
Meryl

A Guide to Passover

Passover, or Pesach, which begins on the fourteenth of the Hebrew month of Nisan, begins this year on Friday evening, April 15. Our Festival of Freedom lasts for seven days, commemorating the Exodus from Egypt. In the Torah it is designated by several names: Chag Haaviv (Deuteronomy 16:1), the Spring Festival; Chag HaMatzot (Exodus 12:20), the Festival of Matzah, and Chag HaPesach, the Festival of the Paschal Lamb.

Our current Pesach observance has evolved over centuries and brings together elements of the agricultural and pastoral origins of the festival as we celebrate the liberation of the Jewish people from Egyptian bondage.

The highlight of Pesach observance is the Seder, which means "order," a ritual meal with symbolic foods and a unique liturgy. The Haggadah helps us lead the Seder, retelling the story of our redemption from slavery, and helping us commit to work for freedom in our world today. As "the season of our liberation," Pesach reminds us of our responsibility to those who are oppressed or enslaved today—physically, intellectually, or ideologically. The experience of redemption in the Passover celebration should inspire all Jews to assist in the future redemption of humanity.

There are many mitzvot (sacred obligations) of Passover, and we hope that the following helps remind you of some of these customs:

The Mitzvah of Removing Leaven (chametz)

It is a mitzvah to remove leaven from one's home prior to the beginning of Pesach, and to refrain from eating any leavened products throughout the festival. Leaven refers to products made from wheat, barley, rye, oats and spelt, which have been permitted to rise. Some Ashkenazi Jews maintain the custom to include rice, millet, corn, and legumes (peas, beans).

The removal of leaven is based on the Biblical injunction found in Exodus 12:15: "On the very first day you shall remove leaven from your house." Those who do not actually remove all the leaven from one's home should place it in a closet or cabinet appropriately marked so that it will not be used during Pesach.

The Mitzvah of Preparing a Seder It is a mitzvah for everyone to participate in the preparations for the Seder—cooking, cleaning, and setting the festive table. The leader of the Seder also typically reviews the Haggadah, or Haggadot, in advance, planning which passages will be included and how the ritual meal will be conducted to include all those in attendance. In addition, the tradition encourages the use of beautiful ritual items to increase our enjoyment of the mitzvot.

We are planning a Community Second Night Seder led by Rabbi Chaiken at Temple Emanuel on Saturday, April 16 at 6:00PM – we hope you will join us! (RSVP required - see back of bulletin for information!)

The Mitzvah of Hospitality

It is a mitzvah to invite guests to join in the Seder. We even include in the text of the Haggadah, "Let all who are hungry come and eat, let all who are in want share the hope of Passover." We work to ensure that all who wish to celebrate Passover can do so in community.

The Mitzvah of Tzedakah (Charity)

It is a mitzvah to give Tzedakah before Passover. Tradition encourages the solicitation of special funds to provide food for those in need.

The Haggadah

There are many different Haggadot used to recall the Exodus from Egypt. The diversity of customs and practices helps to make each Seder unique. One of the central ideas teaches that each of us should look upon ourselves as having personally experienced the Exodus. "In every generation, each of us should feel as though we ourselves had gone forth from Egypt, as it is written: And you shall explain to your child on that day, it is because of what the Eternal did for me when I, myself, went forth from Egypt."

The Seder Plate

A Seder Plate holds the symbolic foods that help us recall our journey from slavery to freedom. It includes: Zeroa*, a roasted shank bone burned or scorched, representing the ancient Passover sacrifice; Karpas*, parsley or green vegetable, symbolizing springtime, hope and renewal; Maror*, bitter herbs, often horseradish root, symbolic of the bitterness that our ancestors experienced in Egypt and, in a contemporary sense, the lot of all who are enslaved; Charoset, a dish often made from fruit and nuts, representing the mortar which our ancestors used to make bricks for Pharaoh; Beitzah*, or a roasted egg, representing the Chagigah or festival offering, and a symbol of life itself; Chazeret, another bitter herb like romaine lettuce, in addition to the maror. We also place three separate pieces of Matzah on the table—two pieces that represent the two traditional loaves (Lechem Mishneh) set out in the ancient Temple during Sabbaths and Festivals, and a third matzah symbolic of Passover.

We fill Elijah's cup, a special glass of wine or juice for Elijah the Prophet, and we traditionally open the door for Elijah's presence at the end of the seder, with hope that our world will be redeemed in the year to come with the help of the prophet who heralds redemption.

Additions to the Plate: In recent decades, many Reform and liberal communities have included additional items on the seder plate to represent some of the freedoms we still seek to bring to the world. Miriam's cup is filled with water, honoring the role of women in our deliverance from Egypt and throughout Jewish history, and representing her role bringing water throughout the Israelites' journey in the desert. An orange represents the inclusion of LGBTQ+ Jews in Jewish life.

The Mitzvah of Eating Matzah (Unleavened Bread)

It is a mitzvah to eat matzah at the Seder and to recite the appropriate blessings. (See Haggadah). By eating Matzah, we recall that the dough prepared by our people had no time to rise before the final act of redemption. "And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough since they had been driven out of Egypt and could not delay, nor had they prepared provisions for themselves."

The Mitzvah of Four Cups

It is a mitzvah to drink four cups of wine or grape juice during the Seder, each of which recalls one of God's four promises of redemption from bondage made to our ancestors. Some follow the custom of adding a fifth cup, representing the connection to the promised land.

The Four Questions

It is customary for the youngest participant (s) to recite the Four Questions, found in the Haggadah. This traditional text shares four answers to the question "what makes tonight different than all other nights?" And the answers note four unusual features of the Seder meal: eating only matzah, dipping foods, eating bitter herbs, and reclining using pillows.

Afikomen

After breaking a piece of Matzah early in the Seder, we set aside half as the Afikomen, the official "dessert" of the meal. According to one tradition, the meal cannot end until all had tasted of the Afikomen. In connection with this, a practice developed of hiding the Afikomen and having the children search for it. Sometime during the meal, the leader hides the Afikomen, trying to elude the watchful observance of the children, whose endeavor it is to search out its hiding place. Prizes might be awarded to all who participate, with a special gift to the one who finds it. In some households it is the custom for children to "steal" the Afikomen to hide it, and hold it for "ransom", since the meal cannot conclude without it.

Yizkor

It is a mitzvah to recite Yizkor, or memorial prayers, on the seventh day of Pesach. Our memorial service this year will be the evening of Thursday, April 21, at 6:30 PM – the evening which begins the 7th night of Passover. Yizkor memorializes our relatives and our own friends, as well as the martyrs of our generation and previous generations.
