

Welcome Cantor Rachel Reef-Simpson

We are so pleased to officially welcome
Cantor Rachel Reef-Simpson as our new Cantor

BULLETIN

Summer 2022 | Tammuz/Av/Elul 5782

With the long days of summer upon us, I hope that you are finding time to be outside, enjoy the warmth, the sunlight, and the beauty of our surroundings. While the Temple building is a little quieter without our preschool and religious school students roaming our hallways each day, we continue to have quite a lot going on, and as always, there is so much to be excited about here at Temple Emanuel.

Of course, we are continuing to live through a time of great change in our world, and the same is true for our Temple Emanuel community.

I am thrilled to officially welcome Cantor Rachel Reef-Simpson who formally began her service as our Cantor on July 1. With her warmth and her music, her humor, and her leadership, I am so excited for all that we will accomplish together as a clergy team. While you likely heard that an unforeseen medical situation prevented Cantor Rachel from joining us on the bimah on July 1, we wish her a refuah shleimah, a speedy and complete recovery, and we're looking forward to welcoming her to the bimah and for all of the opportunities to get to know her later this summer.

Remember, you don't have to wait until Rosh Hashanah to come back to the Temple! I hope you'll take advantage of the opportunities to meet her, and reconnect with me in the days and weeks to come. This bulletin includes more about the opportunities to connect with me, and with Cantor Rachel this summer, along with a short "interview" that will help you start to get to know her a little bit better. Most importantly, know that we're here for you!

Rabbi Max Chaiken

Throughout the summer, as usual, we'll also be planning for the fall holidays and the year to come. As always, we are looking to create a joyful, musical, prayerful and meaningful holiday experience that honors our traditions and also brings chances for innovation.

As you might remember, over the past two years we have used readings from the Reform movement's new machzor, Mishkan HaNefesh, and I'm excited to share that following the recommendation of the Ritual Committee and the approval of our Board of Governors, we'll be adopting it as our high holiday prayerbook this fall. You can read more about it in this bulletin, but I'd like to take this chance to invite any who are interested in learning about it and getting a taste of it before the holidays to join me for one of three workshops I'll be teaching in late August and early September to give our community that important opportunity.

Most importantly, dear friends, if you're still reading this, it's clear that you are somebody who cares deeply about our Temple Emanuel community, and I want to remind you that our community here at Temple Emanuel cares about and depends on you. Our relationships with one another, the community we form together has shaped our success over more than a century since we were founded. That remains true to this day, and I hope that you will continue to stay active and engaged with our congregation. Our members are the heart and soul of this community, and we are so grateful for your ongoing support and participation.

A Message From Our President

The Oxford dictionary defines community as, “a feeling of fellowship with others, as a result of sharing common attitudes, interests, and goals.” I think this clearly captures our Temple Emanuel community.

Our Temple Emanuel community is strong because of our common goals and our deep Jewish values. For me, the last couple of years have proven how strong our community is. We’ve navigated through the pandemic to come together in ways that we have never experienced before and continued to find ways to gather safely in person. While our temple building is certainly important, a second home, the most important part of our community is each and every one of you. It’s you who make this temple as sacred and central as it is to every one of us.

Coming together again in person, after connecting virtually for two years began at the high holidays, when we celebrated this sacred time of year with our new rabbi. It was such a special moment for all of us. Then as we moved through the year we honored Rabbi Chaiken and officially welcomed him and Danny to our community. It was a beautiful weekend and extremely special to both Rabbi Chaiken and to our temple community. Our Chanukah Night of Music was wonderful as the many different musical participants helped us celebrate Chanukah in a meaningful way. Our community joined together again during Purim as our Religious School, Brotherhood, Sisterhood, and our youth group all worked closely together to put on a very well received Purim carnival for our young families. In April Rabbi Chaiken led our community Passover Seder as families experienced the evening here at the Temple to celebrate and retell the story of our freedom from slavery. Our Brotherhood, Sisterhood, and TEMTY have all held highly successful events. Brotherhood’s Comedy Night was over two years in the making and there was a great guest speaker at the Sisterhood’s Ways and Means dinner. TEMTY led a beautiful Havdalah service out on the patio where the light of each family’s Havdalah candle lit up the evening. Our Temple’s preschool and religious school have continued to do a phenomenal job teaching our children Jewish traditions, history and values. In between all of this we have had hikes, educational seminars, Bible studies, movie nights and many other programs and events, both in person and online.

We have come together not only to support those who have lost loved ones but to celebrate life’s milestones. Hearing a baby “say Amen” at the end of a prayer or sermon, during a baby naming, has been a personal favorite. The strength of our community is our ability to support each other through life’s ups and downs, in times of agreement and disagreement. Each and every person in our community is what makes Temple Emanuel such a special place.

The future here at Temple Emanuel looks even brighter. Earlier this month we welcomed our new cantor, Rachel Reef-Simpson. This summer, we’ll have many opportunities for you to meet Cantor Rachel and connect with Rabbi Chaiken. This coming year we will have many more chances to explore what Temple Emanuel has to offer.

I want to thank our professional staff for all their hard work over the last year. Their time and commitment has helped us put together the programming that we have all enjoyed. However, our temple staff would not be able to accomplish everything without all of the volunteers that contribute their time and effort to make this Temple the hub of Jewish life in the Merrimack Valley.

I want to give a special thanks to my Executive Committee this past year. Your tireless dedication to the temple is so greatly appreciated. During the last couple of years our Board of Governors has played a vital role in helping our congregation stay connected with the Temple. Your hard work this year moving our Temple forward under difficult circumstances is very much appreciated, thank you for your dedication. I also want to welcome Nick Hirth and Jamie Kitces to the Executive Committee. I look forward to working with both of them. I also want to extend a warm welcome to our new Board of Governors members.

A special thank you to our committee chairs and all the committee members who have volunteered and are the fuel that keeps the temple going. Finally, I want to thank my family for putting up with all the meetings and calls.

Temple Emanuel means so much to me and my family. We have been a part of this community for over 20 years. My Dad, Mom and my brother, whose Bar Mitzvah was here at Temple Emanuel, have been involved even longer than that. Temple Emanuel has become a second home for us. Our community has always been welcoming and has allowed my children to feel comfortable being themselves and expressing their Judaism in a way that was meaningful for them.

My goal is to make sure that future generations of children also have a place where they can go and be themselves no matter who they are. I hope you will join all of us in working to make sure that Temple Emanuel continues to be that place.

Cantor's Column

An Interview with Cantor Rachel:

"These are a Few of my Favorite Things" (with props to one of my favorite musical theatre composer duos Rogers and Hammerstein)

Shalom Friends! I am honored and privileged to begin serving the Temple Emanuel community as your new Cantor. As I was preparing to begin my partnership with all of you, I was asked a series of questions to answer as a way for my new Temple family to get to know me. There seemed to be a running theme for many of the questions about what some of my favorite things were, so I thought I'd start with these questions.

What is your favorite thing about being a Cantor? Why?

What I love most about being a Cantor is being a part of people's lives as they journey through the life cycles of their lives. It brings me such joy to join in celebration with my congregants as they celebrate the most meaningful moments in their lives, from the birth of a baby, to partnering with students as they become B'nai Mitzvah and celebrating with couples as they join together in marriage. I am also deeply humbled when I can be present for and help bring peace to people when they are sick and comfort to those who are nearing the end of their lives. It is truly the greatest honor to be called upon to support families as they grieve the loss of a loved one. It is a privilege to be present for people in times of great joy and deep sorrow.

Do you have a favorite prayer? Which one and Why?

My favorite prayer is Hashkiveynu. Hashkiveynu is a prayer recited or sung in both the weekday and Shabbat liturgy in the evening. It asks God to shelter us in peace, to watch over and guard us in the evening when we rest and restore us to life in the morning. I liken the prayer to a lullaby we sing before we go to sleep. Many of the musical settings for Hashkiveynu are calming, peaceful, in keeping with a soothing lullaby. I look forward to sharing many beautiful Hashkiveynu melodies with you in our worship together.

What is your favorite verse or book from the Tanach and why?

My favorite book from the Tanach (the books of the Torah, Prophets/Nevi'im and Writing/Ketuvim) is Song of Songs/Shir HaShirim. It is a book of love poetry composed by King Solomon. It is considered one of our Megillot and it is the Haftarah that is chanted during the week of Passover. Some Rabbinic sages suggest the poetry describes King Solomon's relationship with God. Others say they are love poems for his lovers. My own personal interpretation is that it is both and depends on the context of the verses. Why is this my favorite book in the Tanach? Well, for one, I'm a huge romantic and those who know me well say that I am a very passionate person with a big heart. But, honestly, who doesn't like love poems and love songs? Who wouldn't want someone to write something so beautiful for them. I rest my case!

Who are some of your favorite musicians, both secular and Jewish?

I'll start with my favorite Jewish musicians. I know it seems obvious and predictable, but Debbie Friedman is on the top of my list, and I'll tell you why. I grew up in a Conservative Jewish family and was not really familiar with Debbie's music growing up. My first real introduction to her music was when my family began attending services at and connecting with a Reform congregation. Debbie's music opened up a whole new world of Jewish liturgical music for me and resonated so deeply with me in a way I had never felt before. Once that gate opened, I began exploring, listening to and singing the music of every contemporary Jewish musician I could find. And, of course, my newest favorite Jewish musician is my son Ian Simpson and his musical partner Jeremy Sipe who will be recording their first album of Jewish music this fall! Their band name: Double Chai...perfect!

As far as secular musicians, my favorite music and bands can be broken down into 3 categories: music of my childhood, songs of my teens and twenties and music that connects me as an adult to my kids.

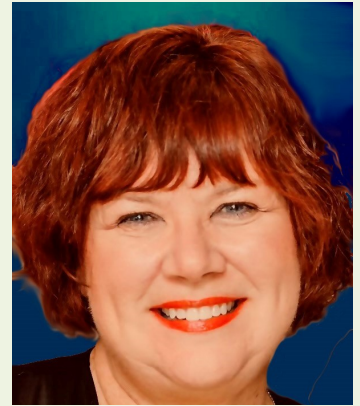

#1 always was and will be The Beatles. When I was a little girl, my Papa would bring me Beatles albums when he and my Grammie came to visit. I credit the Beatles for teaching me how to sing, especially harmonies! Of course, I love all the Beatles, but my first love is Paul McCartney. He's mine, ladies! And, yes, my husband is aware of my devotion to Paul. I have a soft spot for the British!

#2 U2. I have been to every concert tour U2 has had in Boston since 1984, with the exception of one...when they came during the High Holy Days. Why Bono didn't get the memo that they're timing didn't work for me, I don't know. I am almost as much of a die hard U2 fan as I am a Paul McCartney fan. U2 defines the 80's and 90's for me.

#3 Coldplay. When looking for contemporary music that I could relate to with my children, I started to tune into Coldplay. Coldplay's earlier music was reminiscent of U2, but appealed to a younger generation. They shifted styles and sounds over the years, but I'm getting into their pop-y, dance music now...it's great road trip music. And, again, my newest favorite rock band is Sons Lunar, my older son Alex Simpson's 70's inspired rock group. His album will drop later this year as well!

What are your favorite musical styles?

Before you think me strictly a rock and roll girl, I have to say the other major influence on me as a child was musical theatre. That's the other genre of music my Papa gave me albums of as a child. I am a huge musical theatre fan and see just about every musical that tours and try to make an annual pilgrimage to New York to see new shows. I like everything from the classics to the contemporary.

I also love classical music and attend many classical concerts as well annually. The last concert I saw was Yitzchak Perlman, who I especially loved, as he is not only a treasure for being a violin virtuoso but having a delightful sense of humor! My favorite classical composer is Bach. Vivaldi is a close second.

Speaking of classics, I love classic rock from the 60's and 70's....just about everything. And, sadly, the only genres of music I can't get into are country music and opera. Sorry, Met Opera fans...I've tried. Country, I haven't really tried. The only country music I like is Jewish country artist Joe Buchanan and Jewish bluegrass band Nefesh Mountain. Yes, Jewish country music does exist!

So, those are a few of my favorite things, friends! I can't wait to meet you all in person and hear what some of your favorite things are too!

Education

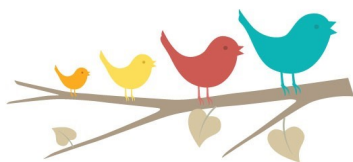

Summer is one of my favorite times of the year for many reasons. The warmer weather, relaxed pace, and quality family time are always welcome. The summer months are also a time in which I find myself reflecting on the past ten months and looking ahead to the Fall - always with eager anticipation and excitement. Spending time each summer at URJ Eisner Camp allows me to speak with clergy and educators from across the country regarding best practices. I always find these conversations to be interesting, engaging, and most of all inspiring. Each August, I leave the Berkshires eager to share what I have learned with my staff - keeping us connected to the reform movement through interactive worship, music, and of course education.

While our teaching staff will be back in the building getting ready by mid-August, our school doors will open in September. The Preschool will welcome children back beginning with our annual Popsicle Party/Teacher Meet-N-Greet on September 1st. Our Religious School will reopen on Sunday, September 11th starting with a special service in our sanctuary at 9 am. As always, details regarding our temple schools will be emailed before our school year begins.

In the meantime, enjoy this season as it always goes a bit too fast. I look forward to seeing everyone in September!

The Preschool

The Preschool at Temple Emanuel provides a safe, warm and caring environment that welcomes children and families to our community. We encourage children to explore, experiment, and create while promoting self-confidence, self-expression, independence and a lifelong love of learning.

Brotherhood

As we take time this summer to relax and unwind with family and friends, your Brotherhood board has been busy behind the scenes planning and running events and programs for the upcoming year. But first, an update of recent activities; Our recent Men's Night Out at Night Shift Brewing in Everett was a lot of fun for those that attended. They received a private tour of the brewery and sampled some great Night Shift offerings. A big thank you goes out to temple member, Joe Mashburn, who is the Head Brewer there and was able to provide personal attention to our group.

Our annual tradition of placing American flags at the graves of our Jewish veterans interred in local cemeteries went very well this year with more than fifteen participants. This is always a Mitzvah and with more volunteers we were able to get the job done quickly and efficiently.

Several Brotherhood members took part in helping at Habitat for Humanity's Faith Build Day sponsored by the Social Action/Social Justice Committee. It was very much appreciated by the folks at Habitat and all that participated enjoyed the experience and felt a sense of pride and community while getting their hands dirty and giving back.

Our annual Summer Planning Meeting is scheduled to take place on July 23rd. Some of the upcoming events that we will be working on for you include A Patriots Tailgate party in October, our annual Tasting event on November 5th, and a night at X1 Racing in December. We will be bringing many new activities to the Brotherhood this year as well as some fan favorites, so I encourage you to watch for flyers, bulletins, and emails with details for these fantastic programming opportunities. I also encourage you to get more involved in Brotherhood this new year. We are always looking for new blood and new ideas. Please feel free to come to meetings and events. We welcome all gentlemen of the temple and there is no time commitment necessary. Simply do your best to get more active and have fun at the same time!

Enjoy your summer!

Sisterhood

I hope everyone is enjoying the start of summer. My first year as Sisterhood President was very exciting. We kicked off last year with a Sisterhood Sukkot celebration and then followed it up with our very successful Sisterhood Paid Up Supper on the patio in October. We finished our year with our annual Sisterhood Ways and Means with our guest speaker Brandeis Professor Lisa Fishbayn Joffe. Thank you to all our volunteers who helped make this event a success.

This summer the Sisterhood will be having Mah Jongg on the patio on Thursdays at 1 pm. If you would like to join or have any questions, please contact Susan Abraham. The Sisterhood Board is in the process of planning events for the 2022-2023 season if you have any ideas you would like to have for events, please contact the Sisterhood Executive Board. Mark your calendars: on Monday August 8th we will be having our first Sisterhood General Meeting at 6:30 pm at Holli Robert's home, and on Sunday November 6th at 6 pm we will be having our annual Paid Up Supper at Temple Emanuel.

Have a great summer everyone!!

Tzedek Tzedek, Tirdof! - Justice, Justice, Shall You Pursue!

Every news broadcast and social media channel bombards us daily with the challenges people face - hunger, discrimination close to home, disenfranchised voters, gun violence, the war in Ukraine...the list goes on. The Social Action - Social Justice Committee expanded its focus this year to promote justice locally.

The Board of Governors engaged in the ADL's program on "Implicit Bias" in January which provided a springboard for further discussion to benefit the temple community.

In April and May, the SA-SJ committee and our 9th grade confirmation students participated in three discussion sessions regarding food insecurity and basic needs, aging and supporting our elder community, the Ukraine and how we can help the refugees. Each discussion was followed up with an activity: grab 'n go lunches, letter writing and potting plants, and resources for refugees. Next year we will expand this joint effort with the Religious School on a monthly basis and are excited to promote Social Action-Social Justice in our youth.

In May we were delighted to return in person to serve at Bread & Roses and are seeking 2-3 new volunteers. A special thanks to Judy Matulsky and her sub-committee of Temple employees (Barbara, Beth, Betsy, Elissa, Janice & Sue) who will be preparing the macaroni & cheese on the Monday before we serve on Tuesday.

The committee continues to send a bereavement package through Grandma's Chicken Soup to congregant families in mourning.

The Scholarship Committee was delighted to award 7 scholarships to outstanding students in Lawrence towards their college careers.

Affordable housing provides an opportunity for a family to enjoy the tremendous local opportunities so many of us enjoy: good schools, excellent libraries and family-friendly parks. Thanks to our team of hammer-wielding volunteers on June 12th for joining Habitat for Humanity's "Day That Faith Built". Who knew that caulking and installing windows and flashing or weeding could be such fun? Be on the look-out for our next building event in the Fall. No previous experience needed!

In the Fall we are launching a voter registration/voting access project in concert with the RAC - Religious Action Center for Reform Judaism's "Every Vote - Every Voice" campaign.

Let us know if you wish to participate in the postcard campaign, voter registration event, or are able to drive people to the polls, and other non-partisan voting initiatives.

Stay tuned for more in the coming year...

Re-SOUL-lutions A New Prayerbook for the New Year

We're excited to share that when we gather this fall for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, we'll be welcoming a new member of our community: a new prayerbook. Over this past year, our Ritual Committee met several times to discuss adopting Mishkan HaNefesh, the updated Reform movement prayer books for our High Holiday services, and earlier this spring, without objection, the committee voted to do so. The Executive Committee and Board of Governors supported this recommendation as well.

These prayerbooks will already feel quite familiar to our congregation. The layout is the same as the prayerbook we use on Friday nights, Mishkan Tefillah, and over the past several years, both Rabbi Goldstein and Rabbi Chaiken have used excerpts from this prayer book at our High Holiday services. These machzorim (high holiday prayerbooks) were first published and released around seven years ago, and there are a number of benefits to adopting them. They maintain the liturgy and Hebrew of the High Holiday prayers that mean so much to us, while also offering a contemporary approach to translation, gender, theology, and scholarship. They also include transliteration (the Hebrew prayers written in English characters) for every prayer, which will help our services be more inclusive.

Since its release, Mishkan HaNefesh has been adopted by 80% of Reform congregations, and has become the standard Machzor for the Reform movement. We are looking forward to this meaningful advancement for our community.

In August, Rabbi Chaiken will hold three introductory workshops to allow our congregation to become familiar with the new machzor prior to the High Holy Days. These workshops will give you a chance to take a look at a copy in advance, and reflect on some of the beautiful translations and poetry included in them.

Those workshops will take place on:

- Sunday, August 21 at 12:30 PM in our Social Hall and on Zoom
- Wednesday, August 24 at 7:00 PM on Zoom only
- Thursday, September 1 at 10:30 AM in our Social Hall and on Zoom

If you are planning to attend, please visit our website to RSVP and let us know!

Finally, for those who are interested, you may also contact the Main Office to borrow a copy for a short period of time this summer, and the books may also be purchased as Kindle Books on Amazon or through the CCAR press if you'd like to own your own copy.

We hope that Mishkan HaNefesh will help us maintain our traditions, connect to our holidays in new ways, and bring in the Jewish new year meaningfully and joyfully for years to come.

Make your Mark – in our new machzor

The High Holidays are an incredibly meaningful time in our annual Jewish calendar. With a gift of $180, you can have a bookplate placed on the inside cover of our new Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur prayer book. Consider a spiritual gift to honor or remember someone close or to simply appreciate the beauty of the holidays and our community.

Bookplate purchases are due by September 1. Visit our website to indicate the honor you would like to have printed and make your payment.

Praying it forward to Prague

We are pleased to let you know that our previous High Holiday prayer books will find new life and bring new meaning to the holidays within the Jewish community of Prague. They are being donated to a synagogue there led by Rabbi David Maxa, who was born and raised in Prague. As the son of a Shoah survivor, he has committed to helping to renew the Czech Republic's Jewish community left silenced by the Holocaust and decades of Communist rule. Our prayer books will provide meaningful support toward that goal.

Below is a note from Rabbi David Maxa about his community:

Ec chajim is a dynamic and quickly-growing Progressive Jewish community in Prague, Czech Republic. Established in 2019 by Rabbi David Maxa and a group of young Czech Jews led by Anna Nosková, Ec chajim opened its synagogue and community center in 2020 and a year later became a proud member of the World and European Union for Progressive Judaism. It is a spiritual home for Jews of all generations and backgrounds and offers a wide variety of services including religious, social, educational and interfaith programs. The community center of Ec chajim serves as the headquarters of the Central European Beit Din, the only Progressive Rabbinic court for the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia. Ec chajim is a pioneer in the revival of Reform Judaism in the Czech Republic and appreciates all help and support it can get. As we are only beginning, we still very much depend on the support of our friends from abroad. That's why your offer means very much to us.

"Peace, peace to those far off and to those nearby, said the Eternal." (Isaiah 57:19)

Finding their Place at the Temple Emanuel Seder

Kathy and Mark Lippman joined the Temple Emanuel congregation after moving to North Andover last August. They had usually celebrated Seder with either their friends or family in the Washington, DC area so being alone for the first time in 20+ years felt awkward for such a meaningful holiday.

Kathy and Mark were excited to be able to attend the community seder with their new congregation and really appreciated the warm welcome from their table. "We immediately felt part of a larger community and appreciated how everyone at the seder came up to welcome us," said Kathy. Mark added "We were able to connect with a lot of new people and have already been able to meet with other couples after the Seder."

Given their positive experience, Mark and Kathy hope to become more engaged at Temple Emanuel and continue to attend community events.

THANK YOU

“How do I know if assisted living is right for my mom?”

When someone you love is struggling to live on their own, you're bound to have questions.

Do you know someone who's struggling with basic activities of daily life? Whether due to physical limitations, cognitive decline associated with aging, or memory problems associated with the early stages of dementia or Alzheimer's disease, it may not be safe for them to continue living on their own.

Small-home assisted living and memory support at The Woodlands Inn provides just the right amount of personalized assistance to help residents regain a sense of autonomy and purpose they may have lost. With dedicated Innkeepers and the flexibility to accommodate personal preferences, it's not just a place to live, it's a place to thrive.

See the difference our innovative, small-home model makes. To schedule a tour, call 978-725-3300 or go to TheWoodlandsInn.org/Contact.
